Azalea City Singer-Songwriters to Perform at Riverbend Park

Songs on the Potomac – A Singer-Songwriter Series will host three Azalea City Recording artists at Riverbend Park on Saturday, June 24, from 4:30-6:30 p.m. Jesse Palidofsky, known for his healing humor and sharp social commentary, will perform bluesy songs from his new album, Food For the Long Haul. 2005 Contemporary Vocalist WAMMIE winner Carey Creed will perform her folk, jazz and gospel-inspired music. Michelle Swan will share intensely personal songs from her Washington Area Music Association's Wammie nominated debut CD.

Songs on the Potomac is a new free concert series held each Saturday in June at Riverbend Park and offers a performance by critically acclaimed local singer-songwriters. The concerts are held in an acoustic format.

Riverbend Park is located at 8700 Potomac Hills Street, Great Falls.

Concerts are outdoors, so bring a picnic dinner and blankets, and sit back and enjoy the show. If there is a threat of bad weather call (703) 324-SHOW (7469) after 3 p.m. for cancellation updates.

Songs on the Potomac is made possible through partnership with Azalea City Recordings, the Fairfax County Park Authority and the generous support of the Folklore Society of Greater Washington.

For more information about any of the summer series contact the Public Information Office at (703) 324-8662 or visit us online at <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/performances/>.
